

SASKATCHEWAN FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS AWARDS APPLICATION PACKAGE

Application Deadline: ~~November 15, 2019~~ November 22, 2019

Please note: Online application is not available for this program.

The Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts (SFFA) is a public foundation dedicated solely to creating a legacy of financial support for the arts and artists in Saskatchewan, through the generous financial support of individuals, organizations and corporations. The Foundation receives donations, bequests and other planned gifts, and invests and manages them in perpetuity to generate income which is directed to artists primarily through a donor-specified awards program.

Awards from the Foundation were first made in 2007. Since then numerous Saskatchewan artists have benefited from the generosity of our donors. Please visit www.saskartsfoundation.com for a complete list of previous award recipients.

The Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts Awards are administered by the Saskatchewan Arts Board on behalf of the SFFA through an independent jury process and funded through the financial contributions and endowments held in trust by the Foundation. The Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts Awards support the creation of new work or development of works-in-progress by Saskatchewan artists.

The Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts and Saskatchewan Arts Board do not set the criteria for each award. They reflect the expressed interests and designations of the individual donors.

SASKATCHEWAN FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS AWARDS PROGRAM INFORMATION

Application Deadline: ~~November 15, 2019~~ November 22, 2019

Awards

Six designated awards of $5,000 are offered to Saskatchewan artists to create new work or develop works-in-progress in the following categories.

1. Literary Award: The Colleen Bailey Memorial Fund

This fund is in memory of Colleen Bailey, Yorkton businesswoman, art collector and supporter of the arts.

The award is designated for an emerging professional literary artist working on a novel or story collection, or on a book featuring Saskatchewan art or photography.

2. Indigenous Literary Award: The Dick & Jane Fund

This fund was created by Richard Spafford and Jane Turnbull Evans, lifelong supporters of the Arts. Richard was a founding member of the Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts and fulfilled a dream of Jane's to enable private individuals, businesses and corporations to build permanent and stable resources for the arts.

This award supports the development of an emerging professional Indigenous writer under the age of 35 in any literary discipline.

3. Regina Award: The Harry Nick Kangles Fund

This fund was created in memory of Harry Nick Kangles, a Regina businessman, art collector and supporter of the arts.

This award is designated for an established artist living in Regina, with a professional practice in music, theatre or the visual arts.

4. Visual Award: The Jane Turnbull Evans Fund for the Arts

This fund was created in memory of the late Jane Turnbull Evans, an artist, arts educator and arts administrator.

This award is designated and restricted to supporting a female, emerging professional visual artist.

5. Visual Award: The Shurniak Fund

This fund was established by William (Bill) Shurniak, founder of the Shurniak Art Gallery in Assiniboia, Saskatchewan.

This award is designated to support emerging professional Saskatchewan artists working in visual arts.

6. Indigenous Artist Award: The Cameco Endowment for Aboriginal Artists

This fund was created by Cameco to support emerging or established Indigenous or Métis artists working in any arts discipline.

The award is designated to support activities that are directly related to the costs of the art project or practice, and for activities that reflect Cameco's values of safety and environment, people, integrity and excellence.

Only one applicant will receive the award in each category. The jury may elect to move your application to another award category for which you are eligible.

Artistic Category

- Emerging Artist – An artist who has moved beyond training into professional practice and have begun to produce a body of independent work locally or provincially recognized.
- Established Artist – An artist who has been practicing art professionally for some time and has produced a significant body of work which has been recognized provincially, nationally, or internationally.

Eligibility

You can only apply for one award at each deadline. The Awards are individually endowed. Successful applicants can only apply once every five years, regardless of category.

Eligible Applicants

Emerging or Established Professional Artists who are:

- Saskatchewan residents (one year minimum)
- Canadian citizens or permanent residents (two years minimum)
- Graduate students working on a project unrelated to their academic program or studies (as confirmed by a letter from their department head)
- Saskatchewan residents absent from the province for a period of up to one year for an artistic residency, arts education or related opportunity, who intend to return at the end of the term.

If there is a question about whether you still live and work in Saskatchewan, you may be asked to provide documentation. Your proof of residency can include a valid Saskatchewan health registration card, a valid Saskatchewan driver's license or evidence of income taxes paid in the previous year as a Saskatchewan resident.

Ineligible Applicants

- Artists who have outstanding final reports for any previous award received from the Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts
- Presenters or agents applying on behalf of an artist
- Undergraduate students enrolled in more than two courses at an educational institution.

Eligible Activities

- Creation of new work or development of a work-in-progress within a calendar year of receiving the award
- Activities required to continue with a work-in-progress.

Ineligible Activities

- Activity undertaken prior to the application deadline or after the one-year project term
- Activity undertaken for academic credit or for professional development
- Commissioned work.

Adjudication

An independent jury panel of artists and arts professionals assesses all the applications based on the following criteria:

Adjudication Criteria

1. Artistic Merit
 - The applicant's resumé, body of work and level of achievement and the merit of the applicant's work in the context of traditional or contemporary practice in an art form.
 - The applicant's development of a distinct and personal body of work.
2. Merit of the Activity
 - The significance of the project to the development of the applicant's artistic practice, body of work and/or career.
 - The merit of the proposed work or work-in-progress in the context of traditional or contemporary practice in an art form.
 - The merit of how the proposed work or work-in-progress meets the criteria of the specific Award.

Acknowledgement Letter

Award recipients are required to submit to the Saskatchewan Arts Board a letter of acknowledgement for the support by the Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts no later than one month after the end of the project term. The letter should describe the creative activity accomplished over the one-year term, the impact of the Award on the recipient's artistic practice and information about anticipated presentations, performances or publication of the work. Excerpts from the letter may be forwarded by the Foundation to the donor sponsoring the Award.

Recognition of Funding

Award recipients are required to acknowledge the financial assistance of the Saskatchewan Foundation of the Arts in print or public presentations of the project. As well, recipients are required to submit a one-page Final Report detailing the activity and how the grant was acknowledged.

Confidentiality of Information

The personal and confidential information that is provided in an application is collected, used and disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. This information is required to process the application. Personal and confidential information disclosed in the application will only be shared, as necessary, with employees of the Saskatchewan Arts Board, the jurors and the Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts Board of Directors. The names of Awards recipients, community, project description and awards amounts will be made known publicly. The Saskatchewan Arts Board and/or the Saskatchewan Foundation for the Arts will respond appropriately to any inquiries regarding the privacy policies and procedures, including requests to access the applicant's personal information.
