

SK Arts
Artists in Communities - Micro-Development Program
March 10, 2020 Deadline

Organizations	Location	Project Description	Amount
17 Wing Detachment Dundurn	Dundurn	Bringing an Art based summer camp to the rural community of Dundurn and surrounding areas.	$1,000
L'Association fransaskoise de Zenon Park Inc.	Zenon Park	Explore the possibility of doing a music project with artist Alexis Normand and determine how to best serve the community of Zenon Park.	$903
Wolseley Public Library	Wolseley	The Wolseley Public Library would lead a cultural inventory research project and offer trial programs to assess current community needs and services.	$1,000

Individuals	Location	Project Description	Amount
Dureault, Mitchell	Regina	To visit, access, and develop, a long term, sustainable music programming that is focused on youth, based on the needs and wants of the community.	$1,000
Ells, Chrystene	Regina	To develop and pilot strategies towards a year-long AiC to provide arts programming for residents, memory care patients, and palliative care patients and their families.	$1,000
Gauvin, Vanessa	Swift Current	Developing a relationship between Artist and Camp, create music curriculum targeted for youth & engage community working towards an Artist-project grant for June to August.	$1,000
Hume, Diana	Creelman	Research and develop artistic programming for the village of Creelman by recruiting artists to share their skills locally with the community and with neighbouring communities.	$1,000
Thorburn, Crystal	Assiniboia	To facilitate 2 half day visual art sessions to research and assess community needs in partnership with the Shurniak Art Gallery.	$948