

SK Arts
Artists in Communities - Projects
November 1, 2020 Closing Date

Organizations	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Art Gallery of Regina Inc.	Regina	Visual	Artists Linda Duvall (SK) and Jillian McDonald (MB/NY) will lead a community-engaged artwork and residency that responds to historical, cultural and discipline-specific approaches to excavation.	$20,000
Art Gallery of Swift Current	Swift Current	Visual	Provide and document for research a professional artist-led weekly art class for Wolf Willow Health Centre LTC to implement into a sustainable program during lockdowns.	$10,000
Centre Francophone BDS	Bellevue	Music	To start a youth choir who will perform three songs in French for "Les rendez-vous de la francophonie" and host Café Culture gatherings in Bellevue/St.Louis/Domrémy.	$10,000
Nuit Blanche Saskatoon Contemporary Arts Festival Inc.	Saskatoon	Multidisciplinary	This project engages youth to create an installation that explores how the rhythms and patterns of Métis tectonics can be translated through contemporary architectural design.	$10,000
YWCA Regina	Regina	Multidisciplinary	Brain tanned buffalo hide will be used to create art work that will commemorate MMIWG2S+ families loved ones.	$10,000

Individuals	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Doyle, Eliza Mary	Asquith	Music	Providing continued opportunity for female empowerment by building local capacity through strengthening, mentoring and expanding the Girls Rock Saskatoon program to under-served/remote communities in Saskatchewan.	$10,000
Phillips, Geoff	Maple Creek	Visual	The next generation of Agribusiness will benefit from learning how technology is impacting their trade through targeted art workshops inspired by local ranching history.	$10,000
Stonhouse, David	Saskatoon	Visual	Artist David Stonhouse is working with newcomer youth from Open Door Society to learn and create artwork that will lead to an exhibition at BAM	$6,408