

SK Arts
Micro-Grant Program
Aug. 1, 2020 Closing Date

Organizations	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Burnt Thicket Theatre	Saskatoon	Theatre	Audio Drama Podcast Research, Development & Market Test: to sustainably produce audio drama as an ongoing storytelling platform for SK artists with digital distribution.	$2,000
Scantly Glad Theatre	Saskatoon	Theatre	To spend a week experimenting and playing in development of our queer, physical comedy collaboration: "Creepy Boys" for Melbourne Fringe Festival and future touring.	$2,000

Individuals	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Bérubé, Annie	Saskatoon	Visual	Mentorship with Laura St-Pierre	$1,000
Dubois, Emilie	Regina	Theatre	Money for composition of the soundtracks of the "Diva and Catastrophe" play to be able to perform it on stage .	$1,000
Hansen, Naomi	Saskatoon	Literary	I am doing necessary research to start writing my first book, which will highlight restaurants all across Saskatchewan through stories, photography, history, and food.	$1,000
Larouche Ellard, Diane	Biggar	Visual	To complete a mixed media encaustic mentorship with Bobbi Clackson-Walker consisting of 8 one-on-one sessions.	$1,000
Morgun, Jessica	Saskatoon	Visual	Produce a short video artist talk to communicate the project "Thoughts and Prayers"	$1,000
Morin, Lawrence	Ile a la Crosse	Media Arts	Lawrence will have his artwork video taped so that our younger generation will know how to gather, prepare and utilize supplies from nature.	$1,000
Naytowhow, Joseph	Saskatoon	Music	designing and manufacturing 500 CD singles of my original song "Born From Dirt" about my fragmented memories of being stolen away to attend residential school.	$1,000
Richter, Jessica	Regina	Visual	"Preparing for the Day" is a documented performance and printmaking project exploring loss and ritual.	$1,000
Ulrich, Maureen	Lampman	Literary	I have written a series of poems about COVID-19 which I would like to have professionally critiqued/edited. Paula-Jane Remlinger has agreed to do this.	$1,000