

Saskatchewan Arts Board
Artists in Schools - Projects Program
November 1, 2019 Deadline

Organizations	Location	Project Description	Amount
F.W. Johnson Collegiate	Regina	After multiple land-based explorations, students will prepare materials to use for traditional art forms to create four panels which examine connections between land and reconciliation.	$9,547
Living Sky School Division No. 202	North Battleford	Conversations with Nature brings together artists, storytellers and healers to lead students through a process of thinking like artists, scientists and stewards of the land.	$10,000
Mistawasis Nehiyawak High School	Leask	Engage students in art therapy sessions, complete a friendship canvas and develop a video of these process. Friendship and culture.	$10,000
Westmount Community School	Saskatoon	Students will learn the music concepts of the ukulele taught by Felipe Gomez. In the end, students will participate perform in a ukulele rock orchestra.	$7,700

Individuals	Location	Project Description	Amount
Dotson, Allan	Regina	A Grade 4 class will build a modular model community which will depict the use of natural resources in Saskatchewan.	$10,000
Fidelak, Terri	Regina	Creation of a large, temporary sculptural installation using locally-sourced clay to engage students in learning about connection to land and sustainability through the creative process.	$10,000